

STATUTES

INTRODUCTION:

Sagi Rama Krishnam Raju Engineering College is destined to serve as a Center for Academic Excellence in imparting Technical Education at global standards. The Institute is approved by All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE). It was established by Sagi Rama Krishnam Raju Engineering College Association, a non-profit Society. The Governing Body is the supreme authority under which the Institution functions. The Governing Body is responsible for the development and/or approval of the Institute programmes and for the Institute policies. The Governing body of the Society considered and formed the terms and conditions of service for regulating the various categories/levels of employees in Institution. Those conditions of service are well formulated, taking into consideration the various aspects and aspirations of the teaching and non-teaching staff. The principal objective is to attract persons with missionary zeal and to retain the well-qualified and talented staff in all faculties, with the ultimate object of imparting high standard and quality education in the field of engineering and technology.

Having set the aforesaid goals, the Institute stipulates the conditions of employment, which are clearly just and fair to the interest of both the employees and the Institute. The service conditions are aimed to encourage the employees to take sincere interest and pride in the Institute and its progress and to put their beset talents in the discharge of their responsibilities.

The Institute encourages its employees to improve their professional qualifications on par with changing needs of the engineering education and to grow in their abilities to serve the institution. Likewise, it wishes to appropriately evaluate, recognize and reward superior performance. The following service conditions are framed with this in mind. However, these conditions and practices will be reviewed periodically and changes will be made as experience indicates.

These service conditions concern with only regular employees who are employed on the rolls of the Institute. Some persons may be employed on temporary/adhoc/part-time basis for specific purpose and/or for a specific period of time. Such employees are not covered under the provisions of these rules/policies outlined herein, beyond the extent set forth in their respective letters of appointment/agreement. This also does not apply to daily-rated/contract labour/workers.

The Governing Body of Sagi Rama Krishnam Raju Engineering College Association in exercise of powers conferred by the Articles of the Society, had made the following rules and regulations, for administration of the Institution.

Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules and regulations, the Management may employ persons on a temporary/adhoc or on contract basis to different posts in the organization under their control on consolidated pay or on daily wages, wherever the necessity and circumstances so warrant.

6.4 Recruitment Policy:

Recruitment Procedure and guidelines for granting of annual increment

Recruitment Procedure:

a) Introduction:

The vision of SRKREC is translated into an organizational goal to identify, recruit and retain highly qualified, talented, and diverse faculty / staff, for positions in all academic fields. The recruitment of faculty / staff is a crucial activity at SRKREC. The Staff Selection Committee is constituted specifically for governing the recruitment procedure.

The process of recruitment includes:

- i. Search for prospective candidates
- ii. Short listing of prospective candidates
- iii. Preliminary Selection – Staff Selection Committee
- iv. University Ratification of the Selected Candidates

b) Search for Prospective Candidates: The search for prospective candidates is implemented in the following two ways simultaneously:

- Advertisements are placed in the leading Telugu and English dailies listing the openings
- The details of the openings including eligibility criteria, scale of pay and other conditions are given in the advertisement
- The candidates have to satisfy the eligibility criterion to facilitate further consideration of their candidature.

c) Application Procedures:

The application can also be downloaded from the website and should be submitted along with all necessary enclosures to the Administrative Office, on or before, the scheduled date.

Retired personnel from teaching/industry and R&D are encouraged to apply for the posts.

The application should include all the relevant authenticated data regarding age, academic qualifications with Class/Grades, experience, post held, publication list, statement of teaching interests, phone no, e-mail id and the names of three references (with contact information) together with attested copies of certificates and marks sheets (of all the years/semesters) etc.

Separate application is to be submitted in the event of candidates applying for more than one category of post. Candidates, who had applied for the same posts before, have to apply afresh again. The age limit is as per the AICTE/ UGC / State Government norms and subsequent orders in force.

d) Short listing of prospective candidates:

Applications, when received, are organized, relevant information summarized, and sent to the respective HODs by the Administrative Office, for short listing.

The objective of short listing is two folds:-

- a) To reject applications that does not meet the eligibility criteria
- b) To shortlist the candidates from the remaining list so that the number of candidates to be called for interview with the faculty Selection Committee remains within manageable limits.

Usually, primary concerns at this stage are the educational background, previous experience and research activities done by the candidate. The concerned HOD shortlists the candidates based on the requirements of the respective department. The resumes of the shortlisted candidates are further ranked in the order of merit by the concerned HOD and sent to the Administrative Office along with their comments and observations for the next level of the Recruitment Process.

e) Staff Selection Committee: The Selection Committee is constituted in the following manner, with representatives as listed under, for each department.

- Head of the Institution /Principal - Chairman of the Selection Committee
- Representative of the Management - Member of the Selection Committee

- HOD of the Department - Member of the Selection Committee
- Dean, R&D - Member of the Selection Committee
- Dean, Faculty Affairs - Member of the Selection Committee
- Subject Experts - Member of the Selection Committee (Preferably from University Colleges)

The committee will evaluate the suitability of prospective candidates for a particular position. Based on their observations, the committee will recommend the list of selected candidates. The successful candidates are issued offer letters within a stipulated time frame to accept the offer. After receiving acceptance letters from the candidates, appointment orders are issued to them.

f) University Ratification

A Committee with the following members is constituted under the chairmanship of the Vice Chancellor of the affiliating university, to oversee the ratification procedure. The members of the committee include;

- Subject Experts
- Principal of the affiliated college
- Secretary or Nominee of the Secretary & Correspondent
- Nominee of the Commissioner of Technical Education
- Registrar of the affiliating university

It will be returned at the time of leaving the service properly.
- b) All employees are automatically governed by the code of conduct or other rules that may be framed from time to time. Any violation thereof shall attract disciplinary action
- c) All employees of the Institute shall be governed by the leave rules and T.A. rules that are framed separately.
- d) The decision of the Management Committee of the institute regarding the interpretation of these and on any order point, which is not covered under these rules, shall be final and binding on the employees.

29. PROCEDURE FOR GRIEVANCES HANDLING:

Employees may have grievances real or imaginary, which if not heard and resolved expeditiously, may lead to frustration and discontentment, affecting moral and interest of the Institute. Hence, in order to maintain harmonious relations between the employees/staff and the Management of the institution and to bring to notice of the Management of the institution the grievances of an employee (individual as well as collective) with a view to secure their expeditions redressed, it has been decided to formulate the following “Grievance Handling Procedure” in the Institution. Complaints regarding sexual harassment of women at workplace are also addressed by the same procedure.

SCOPE: This production deals with:

- a) The complaints that can be covered under “Grievance”.
- b) The constitution of Grievance Committee.
- c) The two-tier system for Grievance handling, and
- d) The method of dealing with grievances.

Definitions of ‘Grievance’:

Grievance; would mean complaint affecting individual employee in respect of his/her wage, facilities, injustice, leave, transfer, extension, promotion, seniority, sexual harassment at work place and working conditions being meted out to his/her.

If the grievance is a general ability or of collective nature, it would fall outside the scope of this procedure. However, collective grievances of routine nature may be admitted at the discretion of Principal.

When the employee has taken up his/her grievance for redress under the procedure, a formal ‘Conciliation and Legal Machinery’ shall not be resorted until all the steps enumerated in the procedure are exhausted.

Procedure of Handling Grievance-State I

- a) The aggrieved employee may present his/her grievance verbally in person to his/her immediate supervisor, Head of the Department or Section.
- b) If the employee is not satisfied with the verbal reply of his/her immediate supervisor, he/she may submit Grievance to the Principal, who will pass it over to the Officer in Charge.
- c) The Principal will convene a meeting which consists of (1) Concerned Head of the Department (2) The Convener, (3) Officer in Charge and (4) Concerned employee.
- d) This Committee will meet within a week and decide the case.
- e) The decision taken to be entered in the Register as well as I the two copies of the Grievance and the duplicate copy will be sent to the employee through the Officer in Charge immediately.

Procedure of Handling Grievance – Stage II

- f) If the employee is not satisfied with the Stage I decision or if he/she fails to receive an answer within ten days, the employee may submit Grievance to the Principal
