IN BRIEF

Women Teachers' Day on Jan. 3

DC CORRESPONDENT
NELLORE, DEC. 27

Women Teachers' Day would be held for the first time in the state on the birth anniversary of Savithribhai Phule on January 3. Human resources minister Ganta Srinivasa Rao told this to mediapersons at Nellore on Tuesday.

Savitribai Jyotirao Phule was an Indian social reformer and a poet and the couple founded the first school at Bhide Wada in Pune in 1848. Along with her husband, she also played an important role in protecting women's rights in India during British rule.

Dwelling at length on the measures taken by the government to offer quality education to the students, Mr Rao said 17.5 per cent of the Budget funds were earmarked for education, despite financial constraints and that steps have been taken to recruit 12,000 teachers.

There are proposals to provide basic infrastructure such as toilets and playgrounds in the schools across the state soon, he said. As a first step, the government has made all arrangements to conduct digital classes in 5,000 schools by spending ₹100 crore.

He said they are going to involve the parents and teachers also during school anniversary celebrations to create a sense of closeness with the institution.

Expressing satisfaction over the success of a pilot project related to model schools in a few places in Visakhapatnam, he said they would establish model schools in every revenue division in the state.

Training is being given to two efficient headmasters from each constituency at the state-level, as part of transforming the state as knowledge hub. He said Vikrama Simhapuri University will shift to its new campus in the next month. DEO M. Ramalingam was present.
